The Joliet Police Department to Conduct Distracted Driving Enforcement from April 16-30

JOLIET—In support of National Distracted Driving Awareness Month, the Joliet Police Department is conducting enforcement from April 16 through 30. This campaign will focus on enforcement of applicable State distracted driving laws in addition to other traffic laws.

This enforcement effort is made possible by federal traffic safety funds administered by the Illinois Department of Transportation to reduce traffic fatalities and injuries resulting from distracted driving.
